

Academic Publishing Workshop:

What to consider when publishing your research?

How to select the right academic journal to publish?
What are editors and reviewers looking for in your article?
How to maximise your chances of being accepted during the peer review process? And what about ethical guidelines during the publication process?

To answer those questions, you're invited to join a

Publishing Workshop

which will help to answer these questions. The Workshops are organized in collaboration between Elsevier and University of Naples Federico II.

The Workshops will take place on the following dates:

Monday 17 October, 10.30 am – 11.30 am

Department of Chemical Sciences (Main lecture hall)

Tuesday 18 October, 2.30 pm – 3.30 pm

Department of Agricultural Sciences (Sala Cinese)

There will be time for a Q&A – join us and ask your questions!

ELSEVIER

Academic Publishing Workshop

Inez van Korlaar works as a Senior Publisher based in Amsterdam and is responsible for Elsevier's portfolio of academic Journals in the food science and food chemistry field. She's in charge of 8 international Journals, such as Food Chemistry and Carbohydrate Polymers. In her presentation, Inez will cover tips and recommendations to find the right journal to publish your research, writing your article, navigate the peer review process, and further information about publishing ethics and open science.
